

CONTEMPORARY CHALLENGES AND ALTERNATIVES TO INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL JUSTICE

VIII AIDP International Symposium for Young Penalists – Online, 10-11 June 2021

Thursday 10 June 2021

09:15 – 10:00 (07.15 – 08.00 UTC): Opening

Speaker: Elies van Sliedregt, University of Leeds

10:30 – 12:00 (08.30 – 10.00 UTC): Panel I

Doctrinal Questions in International Criminal Law

Moderator: Miles Jackson, University of Oxford

- The Indirect Perpetration through an organisation and the control theory - The unconvincing Import of a German Doctrine (Johannes Block, University of Köln)
- Interpretative Fragmentation in International Criminal Law with regard to Modes of Liability: the Specific Case of Co-perpetration (Miren Odriozola, Universidad del Pais Vasco)
- The Ill-Founded Architecture of International Criminal Law (Tobias Beinder, Humboldt-University of Berlin)
- The Mental Element of War Crimes and Contemporary Warfare (Tsvetelina Van Benthem, University of Oxford)

13:30 – 15:00 (11.30 – 13.00 UTC): Panel II

Achieving Justice at the ICC

Moderator: Gurgen Petrossian, Erlangen-Nürnberg University

- The International Criminal Court and the Question of Property and Assets Frozen or Seized Upon Request by the Court (Owiso Owiso, University of Luxembourg)
- Lost and found in Afghanistan? The Interest of Justice in The Statute of The International Criminal Court (Alejandro Sánchez Frías, University of Málaga)
- Negotiated Justice Before the International Criminal Court – Myth or Reality? (Ante Novokmet, University of Osijek)
- The War Crimes of Denying Judicial Guarantees as a Test Bench for the International Criminal Court (Diletta Marchesi, FWO - KU Leuven)

15:30 – 17:00 (13.30 – 15.00 UTC): Panel III

The ICC as the Centrepiece of International Criminal Justice?

Moderator: Giulia Pinzautti, Leiden University

- The International Criminal Court: A Sui Generis System of Global International Criminal Justice between Theory and Practice (Giulia Lanza, University of Verona)
- The ICC and the Symbolic Purpose of Trials: Legitimacy before Developing Countries (Paula Mamede, University of São Paulo, and Sofia Santurio, Leiden University)
- Ne bis in idem in the Rome Statute as a Complex and Idiosyncratic Formula (Gaiane Nuridzhanian, National University of Kyiv Mohyla Academy)
- The Problematic Future of Reparative Justice at the International Criminal Court: Which Alternatives for Transitional Regimes? (Chiara Fusari, Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies of Pisa)

Friday 11 June 2021

09:00 – 10:30 (07.00 – 08.30 UTC): Panel IV

Domestic and Regional Approaches to International Criminal Justice

Moderator: André Klip, Maastricht University

- “When nobody else will do it” – International Crimes and before National Courts: Reflections using the example of the Syrian Civil War (Killian Wegner, Bucerius Law School)
- The Kosiya Trial: Challenges and Implications for Domestic Trials of International Crimes (Sophia Müller, Tilburg Law School)
- Processing Atrocity Crimes Committed in Bosnia And Herzegovina: International, Hybrid and National Courts and Potential of the Alternatives (Nedžad Smilagić, University of Zagreb)
- The International Criminal Justice Project and Regional Alternatives: is there a role for the Inter-American Court of Human Rights? (Anderson J. Dirocie D., Leiden University)

11:00 – 12:30 (9.00 – 10.30 UTC): Panel V

Rethinking (the Scope of) International Criminal Justice

Moderator: John Vervaele, University of Utrecht

- Corporations’ Wrongoings at the Proof of the International Criminal Justice System: Mission Impossible or International Need? (Maria Giovanna Brancati, University of Perugia)
- Prosecuting Corporations for International Crimes. In Search of New Perspectives? (Rossella Sabia, Luiss University of Rome)
- Beyond Ecocide: a Study of Due Diligence Measures as a Possible Alternative in Facing Transnational Environmental Damages (Anna Carolina Canestraro and Túlio Felipe Xavier Januário, University of Coimbra)
- Rethinking Punishment for Atrocities in Transitional Contexts (Beatriz E. Mayans-Hermida and Barbora Holá, Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam)

AIDP Symposia for Young Penalists have become a focal point for exchange on current issues of criminal justice. Young academics and practitioners share their ideas on an international forum, receive feedback and are inspired by renowned keynote speakers and moderators, and work together to learn more - and improve - criminal justice. For further information, visit the AIDP Young Penalists website: www.youngpenalists.com

The Eighth International AIDP Symposium for Young Penalists is hosted by the Faculty of Law of Maastricht University (UM). It is organized by Renata Barbosa, Craig Eggett, Francesco Mazzacava, Megumi Ochi and Miren Odriozola, in collaboration with UM and Young Penalists Committee of the International Association of Penal Law (AIDP).

Register here: www.maastrichtuniversity.nl/events/online-symposium-contemporary-challenges-and-alternatives-international-criminal-justice