

Find another programme

Specialisation Customs and International Supply Chain Taxation

Admission requirements

On this page, you will find important details of the application process (such as deadlines, admission requirements, required documents and application assessment) for the master's programme in International and European Tax Law - Specialisation Customs and International Supply Chain Taxation for the academic year 2023-2024.

Important deadlines for this study programme

Applicable when starting on 1 September 2023

When you want to apply or are applying for this study programme, it is important that you inform yourself of the deadlines that you need to meet. The important deadlines when applying for this study programme are provided in the table below.

Note: if you are viewing this webpage on your phone, we recommend that you use landscape mode.

Date	What you need to know about this date
1 October 2022	Studielink is open for applications for the academic year 2023-2024
Up to and including 1 May 2023, 23:59 CET	Deadline for completing the entire application process for non-EU/EEA applicants (these applicants require a visa or residence permit )
Up to and including 1 June 2023, 23:59 CET	Deadline for completing the entire application process for EU/EEA applicants

General requirements: previous education

The admission requirements for academic year 2023/24 for the master's programme International and European Tax Law - Specialisation Customs and International Supply Chain Taxation depend on your previous education. Please check below which requirements apply to you.

For this master's programme selection takes place on the basis of your quality and suitability. For this your motivation, previous education and your (professional) experience are important.

Graduates from selected relevant university bachelor's programmes

You qualify for admission to the master's programme International and European Tax Law if you have a Dutch university bachelor's degree in: Tax Law or Fiscal Economics. You also qualify for admission if you have a non-Dutch university bachelor's degree in Tax Law or Fiscal Economics.

Note: a master's degree in fiscal economics alone (without a bachelor's degree in fiscal economics) is not sufficient to be directly admissible to the master's programme in tax law.

Pre-master Law

Does your bachelor's degree not qualify for direct admission to a master's programme in Law? Then you can apply for the pre-master Law. This is a preparation programme for students with a HBO (University of Applied Science) or University bachelor's degree who want to pursue a university master's degree at the UM Faculty of Law but are not eligible for direct admission to our English taught programmes.

Read more about the Pre-master Law

Additional requirements

Language requirements for English-language master programmes

All candidates are required to submit a language certificate (IELTS, TOEFL, or Cambridge) in order to prove their proficiency in academic English, except when they have previously completed a study programme in this language or have obtained a sufficient number of ECTS in English-taught courses.

Answer the questions below to find out if you meet the language requirements.

Do you hold a bachelor's or master's degree in which English was the sole language of instruction?

YesNoUndo

Applicants who received their previous education in a non-EU/EEA country (handling fee)

Applicants applying for this study programme who received their previous education in a non-EU/EEA country will have to pay a handling fee. More information on this handling fee and how to arrange this payment can be found on the Handling fee page.

Documents required for application process

During the application process for this study programme, you will need to complete a number of tasks for which you will often have to upload documents. The list below gives you an insight into what documents you will (and might) need to prepare.

Required documents for all applicants to this study programme

A recent portrait picture

This picture must satisfy certain requirements.

A copy of your valid passport or your EU/EEA identity card

Make a copy of the page with your personal details. Save this copy as 'passport copy' and not as 'passport picture'.

A copy of your most recent certified grades transcript and a copy of your certified diploma if you have obtained it. If you have not graduated yet, you can upload your official grades transcript from your bachelor's programme

- Letter of motivation

All candidates must write a well-prepared and structured letter of motivation for this specific master's programme. The letter should explain your motivation for choosing this specific Master's programme. It should also include an overview of what you intend to learn and how this programme fits into your future professional plans. The letter must be dated and addressed to the Board of Admissions of the Faculty of Law.

- Demonstrate your Proficiency in English

As English is the language of instruction in this study programme, it is essential that your English language skills are good enough for you to undertake intensive and challenging academic courses that are taught and examined in English. See 'Additional requirements' on this page.

Please note: Only complete registrations will be taken into consideration. All documents must be in Dutch, English or German.

How do we assess your application?

When you want to apply or are applying to this study programme, it is useful to know how we assess your application. You can find more information about this here.

For this master's programme selection takes place on the basis of your quality and suitability. For this your motivation, previous education and your (academic) experience are important.

Note: only complete applications will be assessed. We therefore recommend that you adhere to the deadlines provided in the table under 'Important deadlines for application to this study programme' on this page. We strive to assess your application and communicate the result to you within three to four weeks.