2024 AREUEA International Conference

Curaçao, June 23–26, 2024

The 2024 AREUEA International Conference, hosted by Maastricht University's School of Business and Economics and the University of Curaçao Dr. Moises Da Costa Gome (UoC), invites academics and professionals to explore the latest research in real estate finance and urban economics. We welcome innovative research, dynamic discussions, and diverse perspectives. The conference also includes a poster session for PhD students.

Submission areas include (but are not limited to):

- Real Estate Markets and Investments
- Urban Economics and Policy
- Housing Markets and Finance
- Sustainable Urban Development
- Climate Risk and Resilience

Important dates:

- Abstract Submission Deadline: February 28, 2024
- Notification of Acceptance: April 15, 2024
- Conference Dates: June 23–26, 2024

Submission guidelines:

Submissions can be in an early stage, but at a minimum, submissions need to be detailed abstracts along with preliminary results. While papers may have been submitted to journals, they should still be at the R&R stage. Papers and extended abstracts can be submitted through <https://www.conftool.org/areuea-curaçao-2024>.
