<sup>1</sup> Mind that courses may have prerequisites, e.g. the course Comparative Legal History of the Limbourgish Territories (MET3006) requires advanced (passive) knowledge of French and/or German and/or Dutch. You can find prerequisites in the course description on the website.

<sup>2</sup> We advise students to choose two courses of 6 credits each or one course of 11 credits per period, with the exception of the third period where it's advisable to choose just one course. Mind, if you take an extra course, you will have to deal with a study load that is above average!

<sup>4</sup> Master's students can choose freely from the bachelor and master courses. If they want to participate in master's courses proof of English language proficiency is required.

<sup>5</sup> Provided that the student meets the Dutch language requirements, courses from the master's programmes or specialisations Nederlands Recht, Recht en Arbeid and the Dutch track of Forensica, Criminologie en Rechtspleging are also offered to exchange students – see Chapter 4 Education and Examination Regulations (EER) 2024-2025.
