

CURRICULUM VITAE PETER SCHOTMAN

BIO

Peter Schotman is Professor of Empirical Finance at the School of Business and Economics of Maastricht University. He is also a research fellow of the Network for Studies on Pensions, Aging and Retirement (Netspar) in the Netherlands. He studied econometrics at Erasmus University Rotterdam, where he obtained his PhD at the Econometric Institute. He has published on many topics in pensions and financial econometrics. Most of his research relates to long-term savings, investments for retirement provision, risk attitudes, and interest rate risk. Next to his academic research he worked as an advisor for Dutch pension funds. Within the Netspar community he has collaborated with pension professionals on industry studies on pension design, portfolio choice and risk management. He teaches regular courses on portfolio management, empirical asset pricing, business analytics, and statistical methods. For financial professionals he has taught course modules on financial performance evaluation, long-term risks, model uncertainty, interest rate risk, and machine learning.
